SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

DATE: June 9, 2010

SUBJECT: Proposed Renaming of Argus House to Andrew B. Ferrari Argus House

DISCUSSION: The paragraph below clarifies that the Argus House program was founded in 1976. It has resided at 1527 Clarendon Boulevard since 1991. Before that time the program was located on 15th Street North in the Courthouse area. The only change in the previous report dated May 20, 2010, is the “Summary” paragraph, as revised below:

SUMMARY: The judges of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court (JDRDC) and Circuit Court Judge Joanne Alper (who succeeded Judge Ferrari) request the renaming of the Argus House to the Andrew B. Ferrari Argus House to honor the significant contributions of the late JDRDC judge who was a founder of the program. The program was founded in 1976 and has been located in this County-owned property since it was built in 1991. The program is funded by Arlington County and a funding stream from the State’s Department of Juvenile Justice called the Virginia Juvenile Community Crime Control Act. The Director of Court Services for Juvenile Court, Patricia Romano, is employed by the County to manage the program, and the group home director, Chris Edmonds, is under her supervision.
