DISCUSSION: This report further updates the supplemental report dated on February 21, 2018 regarding Condition #42, Affordable Housing Contribution. The language provided further clarifies that the four (4) ownership committed affordable housing units (CAFs) provided by the applicant are to be sold to qualified individual households as opposed to third party entities. No changes to the CAF contribution are proposed. The additional changes are highlighted in yellow.

Revised Condition #42:

42. Affordable Housing Contribution (Shell and Core Certificate of Occupancy)

- A. For Affordable Housing Per the Ordinance – Base Density (Shell and Core Certificate of Occupancy) Prior to the issuance of the Shell and Core Certificate of Occupancy, the Developer agrees to submit in writing to the County Manager for his review and approval, its plan to fulfill the requirements of Arlington County Zoning Ordinance (ACZO) §15.5.8 “Affordable Dwelling Units for Increased Density Within General Land Use Plan.” If the Developer fulfills the requirements through a monetary contribution, the Developer shall make the check payable to the Arlington County Treasurer and deliver the check to the Arlington County Housing Division prior to issuance of the Shell and Core Certificate of Occupancy. If the Developer fulfills the requirements through on-site or off-site Committed Affordable Units (“CAFs”), the Developer’s plan for meeting the requirements of ACZO §15.5.8 for on-site or off-site CAFs must be approved by the County Manager or his designee prior to the issuance of the Shell and Core Certificate of Occupancy. Subject to the review and approval by the County Attorney, the Developer agrees to execute all necessary documents, including a Committed Affordable Unit Ownership Agreement (“CAF Agreement”) prior to the First Partial Certificate for Owner Occupancy.
- B. Affordable Housing Resulting from a Change in GLUP Designation – Proposals for Change of GLUP Designation (ACZO §15.5.8.H) (First Partial Certificate of Occupancy for Owner Occupancy) The Developer agrees to execute all documents (including a CAF Agreement) necessary to evidence agreement to all of the terms and conditions for on-site CAFs resulting from a change in a GLUP designation (in addition to the requirements of ACZO §15.5.8.A-G), including, but not limited to, the conditions set forth below, subject to the review and approval by the County Attorney, prior to the issuance of the First Partial Certificate of Occupancy for Owner Occupancy for the project. Unless otherwise agreed by the County Board, the CAF Agreement shall require that all CAFs be owned in fee simple only by qualified individual households and that CAFs shall not be managed by, or transferred, assigned or conveyed to a third-party entity.
- 1) Affordable Rents Sale Price: The Developer agrees to provide for sale to qualified individual households four (4) two-bedroom units, with each unit being approximately 1,331 gross square feet, or 1,065 net square feet as Committed Affordable Units (CAFs). The affordable sales prices for the four (4) two-bedroom CAFS shall be those as defined in the CAF Agreement, based on being affordable to and purchased only by households at or below 80% AMI as published by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for the Washington, DC Metropolitan Statistical Area, adjusted for household size. Each of the two-bedroom CAFS shall meet the Virginia Uniform

Statewide Building Code minimum standard for occupancy for at least three (3) persons, with a minimum of 200 SF of combined living/dining space for each CAF and with at least one of the bedrooms in each CAF containing a minimum of 100 SF.

- 2) Compliance Period: The Developer agrees that the Site Plan condition shall require the CAFs to remain affordable as defined in Paragraph 1 “Affordable Sale Price” in perpetuity from the date of issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy for each CAF unit that is able to be occupied for the building in which the CAF units are located. The Developer agrees to execute for each CAF unit a Declaration of Restrictive Covenants and Deed, subject to review and approval by the County Attorney, stating that the affordability condition for CAF ownership by qualified individual households shall run with the land in perpetuity.
- 3) Accessible Units: The Developer agrees to maintain a minimum of one (1) of the CAFs as Type A units (“accessible units”) under standards described in the American National Standards Institute “Accessible and Usable Buildings and Facilities” (ICC/ANSI A117.1) as adopted by the Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code. The Developer agrees to diligently market the accessible units to income-qualified households with persons with physical disabilities for a period of 60 days during the initial marketing and sales period. If after 60 days the Developer is unable to sell the accessible units to income-qualified households with persons with disabilities, the Developer agrees to continue to make best efforts to market and sell the accessible units to income-qualified households with persons with disabilities, but the Developer may market and sell these accessible units to any income-qualified households regardless of disability. The Developer agrees to market accessible these units as part of the Developer's Affirmative Marketing Plan, described below.
- 4) Developer Affirmative Marketing Plan: The Developer agrees to prepare and implement an Affirmative Marketing Plan in substantially the form as required by the Housing Division. The Developer agrees that the Affirmative Marketing Plan shall call for the initial advertising and marketing of all the CAFs for a period of at least sixty (60) days prior to the projected occupancy of the first CAF unit.

In addition, employees of the Owner, Developer and/or Property Management Company shall not submit applications for the CAFs.
